You Are Crossing the Finish Line for Horizons and FLY!

Horizons, A Family Service Alliance

Horizons is a non-profit organization based in Cedar Rapids with a mission to instill hope, change lives, and brighten futures by providing life changing services to underserved populations. The agency serves more than 11,000 individuals and families through Consumer Credit Counseling, Meals on Wheels, Mental Health Counseling, Neighborhood Transportation Service, Family Support Programs, and Survivors of Homicide Victims. All of Horizon's programs can be reached by calling 319-398-3943. Visit www.horizonsfamily.org to learn more!

FLY (Feeding Lunch to Youth)

Feeding Lunches to Youth (FLY) serves sack lunches Monday through Friday during the summer months and Spring Break. The lunches are prepared and delivered each day out of Marion First United Methodist Church by volunteers. Volunteers drive to the sites and hand out lunches to the children. FLY aims to spread the message of Jesus Christ and the joy of providing and giving to children. FLY is supported by nine congregations, two volunteering corporations, and you. In 2015 FLY provided over 12,000 lunches. For more information log on to <http://www.marionmethodist.org/serve/feeding-lunches-youth>

Results and Awards

Awards will be given at Marion High School beginning at 10:00 AM. Final race results will be posted at www.TROTTT.com within 2 weeks of the race.
